BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS IN PERFORMANCE ACTING

Train with top industry professionals and feature original work in downtown Toronto.

Join Canada's premier acting conservatory program in a university environment and access an unmatched education experience. The Acting program has a 50-year history of offering students unparalleled professional acting training in the heart of downtown Toronto, providing them with access to world-class professionals and links to the industry for further training opportunities, jobs, and mentorship. This is a creative place where hard work and courage help you to become your best self as an actor, artist and human.

ROBUST SKILL-SET

The program trains actors in the craft, skill, and business of live performance. Through a combination of acting techniques in theatre, film, television, motion capture, and commercial voice-over with training in voice and movement, you'll learn to bring classroom teachings to life on stage. You'll also learn about the business side of performance in lessons covering contracts, consent practices, unions, and agents.

YEAR-ROUND PRODUCTIONS

Perform in live or studio productions in downtown Toronto and work with acclaimed guest directors and professional companies. Past guest directors include Andrea Donaldson and Nina Lee Aquino. By studying in Toronto, a North American hot spot for theatre, television, and film production, you'll make connections and start building your professional network from day one.

MULTIDISCIPLINARY COLLABORATION

Participate in multidisciplinary collaborations with students from the Dance and Production programs to make stories come to life on stage. You can also collaborate with students from other creative disciplines on live entertainment, runway shows, and film festivals, among other things.

HANDS-ON LEARNING

With 20% of your class time spent in lectures and 80% spent in studio classes or rehearsals, no other school in Canada offers such an intensive conservatory training program with a university degree.

GO INTERNATIONAL

Gain a global perspective through international short-term intensives including our London campus among other international hubs, or through virtual courses that let you collaborate with like-minded students on a global scale.
